Starters & Sides Made Easy: Favorite Triple-Tested Recipes

Synopsis

60 EASY TO MAKE KOSHER RECIPES
FULL-COLOR PHOTO FOR EACH DISH
PLATING AND SERVING SUGGESTIONS
IN DEPTH SPICE GUIDE
COMPREHENSIVE INDEX

Step aside, main dishes. The spotlight is on starters and sides! True, main dishes are important, but if you want meals that shine with creativity, elegance, or just plain fun - that's what side dishes and appetizers are for! And nobody can put the "wow" into sides and starters better than popular kosher food writers Leah Schapira and Victoria Dwek. All the recipes are triple-tested, unique - and made with ingredients that are readily available. Every recipe is broken down into easy-to-follow steps, and includes interesting tidbits and "Ahead" tips that help keep you organized. Starters and Sides Made Easy also features a handy Spice Guide, a "Plate It!" section showing unique serving ideas, and "Building Blocks" - essential information for preparing basic rice, potatoes, and roasted vegetables. For Shabbos and holiday meals, for entertaining, and, yes, for everyday - amaze your guests, your family, and yourself with starters and sides that make the meal.

Leah Schapira is the co-founder of CookKosher.com, a popular online kosher recipe exchange, and the author of the bestselling Fresh & Easy Kosher Cooking. A self-taught cook, Leah expresses her love of cooking through her polished food articles, her busy website, and her exciting cooking demos and classes. Leah resides in New Jersey with her husband and family. Victoria Dwek is the managing editor of Whisk, a popular kosher food magazine published weekly by Ami Magazine. Her feature articles take readers behind the scenes to learn from chefs and other professionals in the kosher food world. An experienced journalist and avid hostess, Victoria's work combines her passions for good food and good writing. She lives in Deal, New Jersey with her husband and children. The cookbook duo first teamed up with Passover Made Easy, the debut title in the Made Easy series. Starters and Sides Made Easy is the second installment.

Just like the recent passover cookbook I bought, this duo put out another amazing, colorful and fun cookbook. Most cookbooks give you main dishes only. This one fills a critical niche' for a complete meal. We're loving the recipes and having fun making them. The recipes are clear and easy to make. High quality photos.....makes me hungry just looking at the pages. Every cookbook should be that way! Can't wait for the next one!

I purchased this cookbook because, as the title says, it's for starters and sides, which I'm always trying to think of...and I have to say, overall, I'm pretty disappointed in the recipes, and I've tried quite a few of them at this point. Some of the ingredients are a bit obscure, so I'm not sure what's "easy" about that, and what bothered me the most is that at least half of the recipes call for frying the ingredients. I'm not saying that one should never make fried food, but this cookbook seems to think you should fry a heck of a lot. I know it doesn't present itself as a healthy cookbook, but if I knew that every other recipe called for breading, frying, or using wonton wrappers (that you then fry), I might have stayed away. Not super impressed.

Well-done with many useful and simple ideas to provide variety to my menu. The pictures are a great help to indicate how it should look! It's my new "go to" cookbook!

Great new Kosher cookbook! Great ideas!

Grandchildren like the simpleness of the recipes to make. They make things from the book often when visiting. Taste of item made is also great.

I loved the pesach cookbook, so I didn't hesitate to try this newest book. I find the layout refreshing and really love the photographs and plating suggestions. I'm eagerly awaiting the outcome of some of the recipes that are in the oven right now.
