A spoon full of sugar helps the medicine go down, said Mary Poppins...Those who take this pleasant concoction will remember the Presidents for the rest of their lives.--James J. Kilpatrick, syndicated columnist --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

It works! That's really the only thing a person needs to know about this book. If you want to memorize the presidents (or have your child do so), this is the book to do it. It's quick, painless (in fact, it skips 'painless' and goes into 'amusing' and even 'fun'), and effective. The presidents go through Obama (perhaps a later edition will include whoever comes after him). I used this to memorize the presidents, and after a single day had them down and could recite them a month later. Having said that, I will admit to forgetting some of them after not thinking about this again for a few years, but I picked it up and skimmed through it again at that point and was surprised at how much I did remember and how quickly I re-learned it (a single read-through was enough to get it back). This is highly recommended!

My 6th grade daughter learned the presidents and vice presidents within a short time! She had to know them in order, spelled correctly...and it worked.

I found this book 10 years at a free book giveaway. I learned all the presidents in the few weeks I had it before losing it. Haha. Just found it again in . Bought the digital copy for my phone. When I have any downtime, I do a quick run-through of all the presidents. Good bar trivia prep!

I personally don't think it's possible in 20 minutes, but I KNOW it's possible in less than 2 hours! I learned the first 10 last night, then passed the book to my 17 year old today, and he got all 44 down in about an hour and a half. Lots of fun to be had while learning with adults/teens, we have totally cracked up over some of the pictures/sayings used. Definitely worth the price, passing it to the 18 year old now!

Great learning tool!

This book is great for teaching children. Love the format. Shipped early too.
