I forgot how much I love these DK Eyewitness Guides. They're so informative and to the point, small enough to carry with you to reference while traveling, plenty of pictures so you can quickly flip through and arrive upon what you're looking for (I don't like traveling and viewing things if I can't remember/recognize something). My upcoming trip to Egypt is an important one, so I'll definitely be using this there where normally I'd leave at home. Will be ordering their Jerusalem/Jordan (whatever combo of places it is) for the same trip as we're heading there as well. I also love that it's printed on high quality, sleek/shiny paper. It makes using/flipping through much easier and it holds up better to abuse when traveling. Highly recommend these books.

DK Eyewitness travel books are seriously my FAVORITE type of travel books. I've used them in most of my travels and have never been disappointed. Each city is divided into sections that have a street-by-street view - this always comes in handy when wandering around a new city. Also, the building diagrams are very useful for navigating around a huge church or museum. This Egypt guide did not disappoint. There's background on the country as well as history at the beginning of the book, followed by the area-by-area breakdown, a travelers' needs section, and a survival guide. I know it will come in handy for my upcoming trip!

useful guide and has many colorful pics.

One of the other people on my last trip to Egypt had this. Was so impressed that ordered for (hopefully) next trip as yet undetermined. Great pictures, street maps & articles. Even listed an out-of-the-way restaurant that we ate at.
