Customer Reviews

Most of this book is written in the Key of C, for easy piano play. The arrangements contain the essence of each song for a beginner to intermediate piano player. However, several of these songs are not singable in these easy keys. This is a fine book for solo piano, but does not lend itself to congregational singing.

It's a good collection, but one thing bugs me, I like to learn to play the songs in the original keys of the album recordings, then transpose them as needed, I think they tried to make the songs easier to play for beginner to intermediate guitar players, and they changed a lot of the keys, and I don't think they did it so the singers could hit Chris's higher range, because they actually raised the keys in some cases! :( Too bad, it has a great collection of songs.

Not sure how anyone could ever play any of these without constantly flipping back and forth or making photocopies and spreading them out to play. Some of the arrangements also seemed odd both tonally (?) and structurally. Play the same thing with your left hand 24 times while the right make some attempt at melody and you have the intro to a couple of the songs. Ok, I guess, but not quite what I was expecting for some reason.

My fave Christian artist ever!!

SO BLESSED BY THIS TALENTED MAN AND THE MUSIC HE PRODUCES. . . TOUCHES MY HEART AND SOUL. . . OUR GOD IS SO GREAT !!!!!

My son enjoys playing these songs. good collection of songs

Great songs by a great singer.

Great worship songs. For all skill levels! Great way to learn the music that is basic to the church today.
