Saint-Saens, Camille - Introduction And Rondo Capriccioso, Op 28 - Violin And Piano

Synopsis

Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso, Op. 28 remains one of Saint-Saens' most popular concert pieces for violin. Beginning with a pleading lament from the violin, the mood quickly changes to the sardonic, almost taunting first theme of the virtuosic rondo, as if to say "catch me if you can!" Based extensively on scale and arpeggio passages, double-stops, and advanced bowings like the upbow staccato stroke, the rondo works itself up into a final section full of technical brilliance, making it a great favorite with violinists and audiences alike! This edition for violin with piano reduction is edited by Zino Francescatti. Published by the International Music Company. Difficulty: A6
