Horse Racing Divas: From Azeri To Zenyatta, Twelve Fillies And Mares Who Achieved Racing's Highest Honor

Synopsis

Horse of the Year is the highest honor bestowed in Thoroughbred racing, and only 12 female runners have achieved this award. From Miss Woodford in the 1880s to Zenyatta in 2010, Horse Racing Divas profiles these outstanding runners, their owners and trainers, and the eras that shaped their careers. One constant holds throughout the book: These “Women of the Year” are celebrated for their remarkable achievements, all forever linked in an elite sisterhood. Previously titled: Women of the Year: 10 Fillies Who Achieved Racing’s Highest Honor

Customer Reviews

"Rare is the history book that is a page-turner; this is one of them. While some racing books get too bogged down trying to tell the tale of each and every race, this book expertly weaves racing and society history with the tales of these storied characters, both human and horse." Horse Connection

Book is very detailed and only for racing history fans. Also while I realize it is about only Horse of the Year winners but how can Personal Ensign and Ruffian be left out of any book about racing Divas???

I am glad I ordered this book. It documents the accomplishments of these great mares very well. Certainly, it is worth the price. Hope they have to do another update with the addition of the wonderful mare Beholder!!

I am a big Zenyatta fan and having her on the cover captured my interest immediately! However, this was not just a story about her but a history of eleven other wonderful fillies and mares with stellar racing careers. I loved reading about all of them! Just one question...when will you add Havre de Grace?

This is a great book for horse racing lovers!!! I bought it for my 13 yr. old grand daughter's birthday and read most of it before giving it to her.

Fascinating stories about wonderful racing fillies. Well written, interesting.

I love anything With Zenyatta in or on it. I can't help myself I'm still a fan!

It is girl power at its best - the ladies rule the track & the racing world - a good read for all

Of course Zenyatta is the most brilliant Star . Love this book on the documentation of the great female racehorses in History.
