Customer Reviews

My wife and I find the daily questions a pleasant way to participate in a non-strenuous, slightly intellectual competition. The only problem is - she plays for keeps and for 2016 is ahead in the weekly totals 26-22 with only 4 weeks to go. I must win each of the last 4 weeks just to tie. If you enjoy Jeopardy, who doesn't?, this is a terrific daily calendar which we have purchased for at least 5 years.

Every year we purchase one of these day to day calendars because we are big J! fans, but there is need for improvement. If they would hide the question better on the reverse side so you cannot read it through the paper would help. And they seem to be "dumbing down" as the year progresses. I am a senior citizen and hope for a little challenge but many days the answers are almost insulting they are so obvious. We will continue to buy one every year because it's a great concept and we do enjoy this product. My husband and I keep tabs and also watch J! on tv daily.

Fun way to start the day, and it makes it easy to keep track of the date. This is the fourth year I've bought this page-a-day calendar. Questions fall in all kinds of categories, so it's fun to ask the questions of the whole family at once, and see who knows what! Unlike some page-a-day calendars, there are separate questions for Saturday and Sunday, as opposed to one page for both days.

My workmates and I love it. It is well-formatted (answer is on the back, not front like some trivia calendars), and the way the "final jeopardy" is handled is great (the category is announced on the previous day, so you can think about your wager before seeing the actual question).

Been buying these desk calendars for years as an add on gift for my Dad for Christmas. Whenever a family member calls we are guaranteed to get a trivia question. Nice size for the desk top. They are all final jeopardy questions. I love how my Dad makes us answer in the form of a question.

This is my second year using the Jeopardy Day-to-Day calendar, and I really enjoy it. The questions (err, answers) seem genuinely Jeopardy, and they do a really good job with spreading out the topics, especially asking neat related questions on holidays.

This is the 2nd year that I purchased this calendar for my trivia crazed brainy daughter. She LOVES it - so much so that she stayed up late last night going through the pages up till September! She says that the questions and answers are just like those on the TV show.

This game is so fun! My husband and I keep track of the score all year long. We give each other all day to answer. It is more fun when you have more than 5 seconds.
