The 3rd volume consists of the climactic end of Team Rocket's Saga. Red, Blue, and Green have to face off the most powerful opponents up until now, and epic battle after epic battle, momentum keeps building. My favorite thing about this manga -- and this volume in particular -- is that it uses the games as a starting point but then it extrapolates from them, expanding the battle system, the storyline, etc. But rest easy: it doesn't ruin the universe; it enhances it. For instance, PokÃ©mon use the attacks featured in the games, but they use them in unorthodox ways, taking advantage of the environment to surprise their adversaries and attacking in group to combine attacks. Even the speed the trainer throws a pokÃ©ball matters in a battle. I also love that the stakes are high in these battles: Team Rocket's PokÃ©mon fight not simply to incapacitate other PokÃ©mon, but to kill them and their trainers too; this makes battles much more exciting and darker. Also, the Prof. Oak from the games is pretty much the gender-blind scientist that gives you a starter PokÃ©mon and a PokÃ©dex and then reminds you that you can't ride a bike while swimming. Here, we learn he's a real badass too. And ah... how about Team Rocket's secret weapon? What a bizarre and cool monster it creates! So yeah: I'm loving this series so far. Too bad it's taken me a decade and a half to get to it.

Grandson like it!

Red confronts team rocket in the fineal showdown with Blue and Green. This epic novel is filled with action terror laffs.I always liked pokemon manga and pokemon.In this novel Red confronts Articono,Zapdos,moltres, and Mewtwo.Will Red come out of this will Green find a special someone by the name of Re- will saur finally evolve inta a venasaur?

I've always enjoyed pokemon ever since I was a teen. I don't think I will ever stop liking pokemon or being a kid at heart. The games are one experience and the books are a whole new experience. I had never read them before so I'm enjoying them now. If you think the books will be the same as the games, think again, these comics are awesome and as thrilling as the games in my opinion.

My kids are so happy with the books! I recommend them for those who like read their stories and color them too.

grandson is really enjoying it

Very satisfied

I rate this book 5 stars!!!! I love the Pokemon Manga Series so much!! It has taught me a lot about my 1st (Red) and 3rd (Blue) favorite pokemon characters and how their` pokemon lives began.
