Dick Crouser achieved fame and fortune as an advertising copywriter; then he launched a successful second career writing humorous books about sports.

Will be reading this aloud tomorrow as we leave on a car trip, to my husband golf fanatic, to keep him amused as he drives us north. Hope he gets a few giggles out of it!

I enjoyed the book and there was the occasional chuckle but given that the "anecdotes" were seldom more than a few sentences, this isn't the kind of book you're likely to remember with much clarity. Read it if you need a break from something heavy but don't expect to learn much new about the pros in it.

funny

Great

I did not personally read this book, however it was for my father in law and he finished it in one sitting because he said it was great. Any golfer I am sure will enjoy it as he did.
