The Fontainebleau Miami (Ask A Local)

Synopsis

On December 20, 1954, the Fontainebleau changed the face of Miami Beach, transforming it to a travel hot spot with the grandest modern hotel of all time. The design of the hotel was unlike any other structure in the world. The interior decor was luxurious, extravagant, and breathtaking to the point where some visitors referred to it as positively dizzying. Explore the Fontainebleau for yourself in 97 dazzling historic and contemporary photos and entertaining, informative text. Watch the hotel change and expand over the passing years. Read about the celebrities and high profile guests who frequented this lavish structure. Meet all the characters who brought this extravagant high-rise into existence among a sea of low-rise Art Deco competitors. See why the Fontainebleau is world-renowned for extravagance and good times. For everyone with a love of architecture or luxurious living, this book will be a thrill.

Customer Reviews

Kevin and Rebecca Plotner have written previous travel guides for Schiffer Publishing. They live on Miami Beach.

I am a big fan of Mid Century Modern buildings. This is to me one of the best examples of that era. Miami is lucky to have it in their city. Thanks, Jorge
