Customer Reviews

Don't go to Costa Rica without reading this book. The author communicates with you as well. I have read this book twice and still am getting new information I missed the first time.

It is a must If you consider Costa Rica

Could not live here without it!

Well written by a Costa Rican Lawyer who has good command of the English language. Covers key topics that are of interest to those considering moving to Costa Rica. There are substantive differences between Common Law (such as practiced in the US, UK, etc.) and tico-law (mixture of Napoleonic and Spanish law). He asserts that in recent years some "Law" schools in CR do not require an entrance examination - wow!

some one stole it before we could put it to use. sem3d full of good stuff. may have to purchase it again

Great book....very well organized and concise!

The one and only legal guide that we recommend to all of our customers on WeLoveCostaRica.com - Attorney Roger Petersen is a Costa Rica native, born in Costa Rica but educated in the United States and Costa Rica. He has been practicing law since 1992.
