Sally Blanton is a Dallas-based journalist who's written hundreds of lifestyle, travel, business, and profile articles. Sally served as society editor, columnist and photographer for the Turtle Creek News in Dallas for more than 18 years. Steve Richardson has authored three guidebooks and now sixteen books total. Head of the Football Writers Association of America, Steve previously worked at the Dallas Morning News. Andrea Alcorn owns and operates a Dallas-based public relations and marketing company. She has represented more than one hundred restaurants and has raised millions for charities through innovative fundraising efforts.

Maybe needed more pictures but it had some great ideas for things to do in the area.

Can't wait to do all 100! The book is informing and thorough. Also well written - good for tourists and locals alike.

Useful

So-so ideas. Thought it would reveal some really great place to visit.

Great book and ideas for doing and seeing neat things around Big D. Very well written and organized. Some I had never known and I was born here.

This has been a great resource for planning our upcoming trip to see our daughter in the Dallas area!

Great book!
