Customer Reviews

Very good Reading

Very short read but good.

Great series!

The excitement of continuing reading and living the lives of the Amish families, was so exciting I could hardly put the books down. Thank you for writing in such a way I felt like part of the community. Peggy waterston

A woman was ill and future husband was taking care of her while until she got well and she told him what going on in past and she also told him that she was pregnant and he ask her to marry him so she did!!!

It's an okay story but too unrealistic. In book 4, he strongly disliked Becca and after a few pages in book 5, he's madly in love with her and wants to marry her.

Once again I could not put the book down without finishing it. Great believable characters and story line. A little different from other Amish novels. I highly recommend it.

very well written
