Small, nearly 'pocket' book that clearly enumerates and offers helpful maps and instructions to help you find and enjoy family-friendly hikes in and around Phoenix, AZ. Not as 'fun' as "Hiking Phoenix" by Cosmic Ray (which I also recommend, the books complement each other well) but I liked this book's "easy hike" focus (for family hikes with my young children) and the book definitely delivers the goods per its title.

Good product. Speedy delivery.

This is a great book for the beginning hiker. I was interested in taking up this sport to help with weight loss and this helps to direct me to good hiking locations. So far all the hikes I've done are within my ability, so I think this is correct in being only easy hikes.

It is not the best hiking guide, it lacks great maps. But as a carry along in the pack guide it serves its purpose. Light and easy to read. It has served me well and is in my pack when hiking around phoenix.

I bought this book for my son and grandson as a planner for a trip to Arizona. They said he seemed okay but they have hiked here yet,

My husband bought this book on a few weeks ago. Save your money. The driving directions have been inaccurate every time we use this book. Example: the book says "go 7 miles past mile marker 130", it was only .7 miles, 14 miles back and forth. Another said follow the road 2.5 miles, it was actually .2 miles. Some of the hikes really aren't that easy . A 2.1 mile hike was actually 2.6 miles. I'm tossing this book before I waste anymore time driving to wrong places.
