This is a classic! Each entry pushes my thinking further and further. I highly recommend it to people who want to ponder your relationship with God.

A powerful book, one to keep on the bedside table and read in small bites!

This is truly a beautiful, beautiful book.

If you are a newcomer to Rabbi Abraham Heschel this is a perfect beginning text. Small gems from his larger works that will lift your soul and inspire you about the depth and joy of living. It will let you know which of his longer works you will want to read next, because this "appetizer" will whet your appetite for a larger meal of spiritual food.

I asked for a genuine spiritual teacher and was shown Abraham Joshua Heschel. This selection is beautiful! Sincere, unpretentious, humble, inspiring...there aren't enough adjectives. I felt honored to read the words. It's like glimpsing a man's soul. A work to be savored.

Abraham Joshua Heschel was an amazing thinker. If you appreciate C.S. Lewis' non fiction work (i.e., Surprised By Joy, The Weight of Glory, Miracles, The Problem of Pain etc) you'll love Heschel and see an immediate similarity.

Read this book and be filled with wonder.

I love this book. It is truly inspirational and again a good summary of Heschel's thinking.
