Sharing Jesus Without Freaking Out: Evangelism The Way You Were Born To Do It

Synopsis

You were born for this. "God hardwired you—yes, you—for this. I'm talking about sharing Jesus with others. What if I told you evangelism is less about delivering a polished presentation and more about having a real conversation? What if I told you that God has created you to bring glory to himself by sharing Jesus with others, and that you don't need years of training to obey what he already made you to do? God created you for his glory to advance his gospel with the gifts, talents, and opportunities he gave you. You live at this time in history for a purpose bigger than yourself. In these pages you will read how to connect the gospel story with your story, and how to talk about that story in normal conversations with people you know. No gimmicks. Nothing clever. No need to freak out. Just you, Jesus, and others—in conversations that matter.

"Doc Reid's passion to see souls know Jesus is evident. He has dedicated decades of his walk with Christ toward the diligent work of evangelism. Sharing Jesus Without Freaking Out is simply Doc's way of preaching what he practices. This text will enrich your walk, serve as a practical manual for those you teach, as well as mobilize saints from all walks of life to share the good news of the gospel we've been privileged to steward." —D. A. Horton, pastor of Reach Fellowship and chief evangelist for Urban Youth Workers Institute "Here is an extremely approachable and, at times, light-hearted approach to a deadly serious subject: telling others about your love for Christ without fear. I have given my life to the idea of one person lovingly and effectively telling another about the joy of walking with Jesus, and in this book, Alvin Reid does a superb job of helping you learn how to share your faith effectively. Fearlessly. I enthusiastically commend it to you.

•Rebecca Manley Pippert, author of Out of the Saltshaker, Into the World

“Let’s face it: most Christians are freaked out when it comes to evangelism. We don’t need someone scolding the ineffectiveness of the church today as much as a leader to show a fresh, effective way to tell the timeless good news. My friend Alvin Reid does just that in this encouraging book. You can have real and effective conversations with people about Jesus; Alvin will show you how.”

•Ed Stetzer, Distinguished Chair for Church, Mission, and Evangelism and executive director of the Billy Graham Center for Evangelism at Wheaton College

Alvin L. Reid serves as Senior Professor of Evangelism and Student Ministry and the Bailey Smith Chair of Evangelism at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

Just finished reading this and bought a copy for my sister. Lots of good practical advice.

Encouraging me to step out of my comfort zone and speak the hopeful truth of Christ to neighbors, friends, and Passers-by.

Alvin layouts practical and easy to follow methods for people to increase how often they witness and how to be more effective in each encounter. The chapters always left me wanting to go tell someone about Jesus Christ using the advice of the latest chapter I read.

Mr. Reid gives some very helpful advice for sharing the gospel with others. He gave resources to assist in learning how to best approach this command of Jesus based on our differing gifts, limitations, and personalities.

I love how Dr Reid makes it simple & clear, the joy of sharing about our good God. Most of these things will surprise you not because they are new, but because they are very simple & you do them everyday in other areas of life. This isn’t another witnessing plan, it’s just simply talking to people.

The heartbeat of this book is to love Jesus. We love Him by sharing and showing Him to others. Sharing Jesus without fear not only helps to behold God, but practically reveals ways to help others behold God.

Great practical guide to help make evangelism a part of one's lifestyle.

This book brings the reader back to the simplicity of sharing the gospel story. Great book. Loved it and was greatly encouraged to renew my passion for telling the gospel story.

Great book. Encouraging and practical. I highly recommend it.
