Customer Reviews

The calendar is nice. All pictures are from the original trilogy but are smaller than previous Star Wars page a day calendars. Each page also has a trivia fact. Depending on your knowledge of these films, most of the facts are nothing you haven't watched or read somewhere else. From flicking through, I didn't find any of the facts that were from behind the scenes. Most tell you of aspects from the scene in the picture. The weekend page is often a trivia question and the answer is on the same page upside down in small print. I would have liked some pics and trivia from Ep 7.Pro: Stills from the original trilogy films. Good facts for the casual fan or someone new to the franchise.Cons: Small pics. No behind the scenes facts. No stills from the prequels or The Force Awakens.

I wasn't particularly impressed by this iteration of the calendar. Most of the days were focused on plot points and not actual facts. Though I appreciate the fact that it left the prequels behind and focused on the original trilogy, I was hoping for a more well-rounded calendar in terms of mixing trivia and facts with the plot points. Additionally, there were several typos that were rather distracting, though that can be disregarded after the day itself has passed. The Star Wars day-at-a-time calendar from 2016 was much more interesting and had a variety of styles that worked well from a presentation perspective. This one isn't bad - it just doesn't feel like it's meant for someone who has watched all of the films obsessively and is already aware of the plot.

I mean, how hard can it be to make a Day-at-a-Time Star Wars calendar?!? Just stick a nice picture on each page. The problem is, that the pictures are tiny! It is nice that they have a factoid for each day or a trivia question, and it doesn't take up much space on each page. But for some reason, they decided to shrink the picture down to about 2-3 inches wide! This is really lazy product production and not something a Star Wars fan can really appreciate. By the way, the calendar covers movie episodes IV, V, and VI (A New Hope, Empire Strikes Back, and Return of the Jedi).

Some REALLY obscure references.

The adhesive on the end is weak

Very nice for the price, thank you!!!!

Bought as a gift & my friend loved it!

just what I wanted thanks.
