What's Out There?: A Book About Space (Reading Railroad)

Synopsis

What is the sun made of? What causes night and day? Why does the moon change shape? Colorful collage illustrations and an easy-to-understand text bring planets, stars, comets, and the wondrous things out there in space right down to earth in a simple introduction to the solar system for young armchair astronauts.

Customer Reviews

Great gift for my 3 year old son. He was curious about space and this book described everything for early readers. Pictures were great and the vocabulary was appropriate and accurate for younger kids. Contains everything about space from the sun, stars, earth, and constellations. Great bedtime read!

Right age for beginner reader.....

Really awesome book. Bought this for my nephew and the content is amazing. I love the illustrations and vocabulary used. For a child who is interested in space it's a great and informative book.

Holiday Gift

Fun book for the little ones. You can read this whole book in mere minutes, which makes it really great for the little ones at bed time!

Fun book

Great

My children (4, 2 and 1) love this book
