Customer Reviews

Having learned to cook from my wife's mother who came over from the Azores at the turn of the century and being a frequent customer at O'Gil's, St. Michael's Club, Caravalha's, Antonio's, St. John's, etc I have deep love for great dishes like Portuguese steak, shrimp Mozambique, Carne Asada, everything Chourico, that being said I would have liked to have seen more recipes in this book. There are so many to choose from, and the spices seemed to be lacking a bit, not as much garlic, white wine, peppers, etc as I prefer, but for easy to make Portuguese dishes this makes a very good and handy book for the cook that wants a nice introduction to Azorian Portuguese style quick and tasty meals .

Enjoyed reading and will try making many of the recipes
