Customer Reviews

This book is amazing and well laid out. Definitely recommend for anyone with questions as it seems to cover all the general basis' while also having a humorous angle.

Although I'm unsure of the intended audience of this book, I think it spreads a positive message about acceptance and providing insight and education to those who don't get it in a traditional setting.

This is like my new favorite book. Basically.

The book was really funny, but it didn't take away the importance of the message it was trying to convey. It isn't entirely all inclusive about what you need to know about sexuality and such, but it is definitely a great start for anyone who wants to learn or even people that are confidant in their sexuality, there are still some things that can be learned. A famtastic read for anyone.

This book offers up to date, real world info. I apprecoated the non-judgemental, matter-of-fact, and humorous tone of the book. I think this book is great for everyone, especially the parents/ allies of LGBT* youth and LGBT* youth themselves. I think it would save a lot of hassle, help avoid mistakes, and have an increased level of confidence.

Purchased several LGBTQ books to donate to local Non-profit. They loved having this in their library

This is an amazing book- incredibly informative for an ally of lgbtq students. It answered questions you might be shy to ask about or not quiet understanding. Read it, even if it makes you uncomfortable (the woman who suggested it to me even though...). The illustration is very cool too, adding fun to some heavy subjects. Lastly, I loved the slang.

The author takes a lighthearted approach to explain various aspects of the LGBT world. Undoubtedly, this book will help LGBT youth in particular. The main message is acceptance and no matter your circumstances, there is a community that is out there to accept you. Life is better when you can safely live an authentic life!
