A textbook of the history of the world presenting parallel Christian history and a Christian viewpoint.

Great history book for my daughter whom I home-school.

As described

This order is for the TEACHER'S EDITION. It doesn't say it except for in the picture. It has the complete text in a smaller version with additional information in the blue margins. This text is a good one. It is Christian-oriented. The text is a little dry and more advanced - for 8th and up, but thorough. The section review questions are helpful, though short.

I purchased this book for a review of history. I have really enjoyed it. It is not only a good history book but it gives GOD the glory.

The book was exactly as stated. Would buy from them again.

I home school my daughter, and history has always been a subject we didn't enjoy...until now! It is so nice to hear her read her history from this book, which is done on a Christian perspective. Now history is one of the first subjects she wants to do each day!The seller shipped the book quickly. I would definitely do business with them again. Thank you!!

Book arrived in great shape. It came in the required time period. It was packaged nicely. There is no writing on the inside of the book and the cover is in great shape.

I used this textbook back when I was homeschooled, and taking history at a local Co-Op. Before we used this, our teacher warned us that it did contain some views that he did not entirely agree on...It's okay overall, easy to comprehend, however...The views in this are very anti Catholic, biased, and intolerant. I think history is better off taught in a non biased light. Simple facts...This book presents simple facts, with a few nasty jabs thrown in for good measure, unfortunately. It's a shame to see so many "Christians" so narrow minded about the views of others, especially when said views are merely a different denomination of their own. I cannot recommend this book.
