Ryken's Bible Handbook

Synopsis

This book gives students of the Bible a quick overview of every book in the Bible. Leland Ryken's distinctive trait is a literary approach to the Bible—understanding the Bible as literature. The three authors help shed light on understanding the Bible as the inspired Word of God and as literature by looking at the Bible's different literary genres: poetry, narrative, wisdom literature, story, parables, and more.

This is a great plain Bible handbook. I enjoy it. I wish it had more articles and features though.

This book is an excellent overview of each book of the Bible. When I'm starting a study of a book, I spend a few minutes reading the chapter in the handbook to get a perspective on literary structure as well as the connection to other books in the Bible.

a great book, it will help you understand more about the different books of the bible

I love it I can understand when I'm reading my bible and then open my Ryken's bible for more information it's so easy. I would recommend this Bible to my friends. I'm happy Mahalo, Leihulu

This is my study book and it is very, very helpful. We are reading it together as our guide book for the class, The Bible as Literature!

The best part of this book is that Ryken has written it as a literary guide to the Bible. He explains in detail the different types of literature found in the various books of the Bible. Knowing the hows and whys of the different literary genres deepens one understanding of the text...which is the whole point of Bible study in the first place. The section on the Psalms and poetry is worth the price of this book! Highly recommended!

Great! Helpful!

Everything came as described and in good condition. Thank you!
