Ella Fitzgerald (First Discovery Music)

Synopsis

Follow Ella Fitzgerald's rise to become a queen of jazz, renowned for her remarkable scat improvisations, but also for her very personal interpretations of the Broadway classics and her live performances with Duke Ellington and Louis Armstrong, among others. Each spread recounts a different stage of her life, and key moments are captured by evocative photos from the time and by Remi Courgeon's beautiful illustrations. The narrative of the book is recorded on the accompanying CD, as well as 13 of the singer's most emblematic recordings.

"an excellent gift." — Houston Style Magazine

Trust me, there are so many better biographies of Ella out there. Really - trust me, I'm a librarian. Plus I work for the Estate of Miss Fitzgerald. Try Skit-Scat Raggedy Cat. Or "Tales of a Vocal Virtuosa". Both available from . This one is unauthorized. For older readers, Tanya Lee Stone's bio of Ella is pretty good. Skip this one.
