Laurie Carlson is the author of Colonial Kids, Westward Ho!, Green Thumbs, and Kids Camp! She has taught preschool, primary grades, and children's art classes. She lives in Cheney, Washington.

Great book for crafts and school projects on Indians! My son needed 10 facts on a selected Indian dwelling and to make one...teepee being the most well known and the one most everyone did, except my son. This book showed a pueblo village and how to make one. We had a great time making one and he can play with his cowboys and indians with it. It also was a great read and has many other crafts we can use for future projects.

Amazing book that not only teaches about Native American crafts but does so in a way that your family can implement the knowledge in everyday life. They give suggestions for ways to do things the native way with materials that you likely already have in your home. This book is so very awesome! A perfect addition to any native family's home library!

great books for kids.

I found this to be a great book that is just full of ideas for my grandchildren I can't wait to make some of the things that are in the book with them.

great ideas for kids

Great resource for simple projects around learning about Native American cultures.

Great
