This book is basically a summary of what you are reading in the Bible. There is little/no commentary or instruction about what you are reading.

My husband just received his license to preach, and this book is very helpful. We ordered one for his mentor as a gift, as it's just a great little reference to have around.

Very good reading easy to understand and great story telling. If you want to know the history time line I recommend this book.

excellent ready and learning tool to get you to study your bible getting in my bible more consistently

Love it!

Great book. Arrived on time.
