Customer Reviews

This is a decent introduction to learning Pali, however it could use some editing. For example, there are instances where German is used instead of English, and sometimes the explanations for the Pali words aren't quite satisfactory. On the positive side, working with some original texts is enjoyable, and the online readings of each lesson make it easier to hear and understand the pronunciation. Overall, the book works as an introduction, but it certainly has its flaws, and I might end up purchasing another book to round out my learning.

If you like Kurt Schmidt's concise Pali introductory course this book includes both - the course and a bilingual primer of the Udana.
