Customer Reviews

We purchased this map a number of years ago prior to taking a trip to Argentina and Chile. The map was "OK" but the paper was a less than desirable quality. I am always the navigator on these excursions so I use (and thoroughly enjoy) a good map. Folding and unfolding the map really took its toll and I hadn't used it very much before the it was coming apart on the folds. We have since purchased other maps that seem to have a "plastic" coating on them and they last a lot longer. In addition, because this map covered Southern South America, it was more of an "overview" than a road map. It was good for pre-planning whilst sitting on your sofa at home, but not the best on the road.

Really helpful during my trip in Argentina! But the road details is not the best. We got stuck with the bus in the middle of a muddy nowhere and couldn't understand where we were.

It's a map! Has all of the major cities.

I bought this for a three week trip to Patagonia. I found it completely useless and threw it out. It doesn't show or label highways, railways, omits major towns, etc. Buy a better map or use the one in the many good guide books.
