Customer Reviews

Audible and kindle unlimited are products produced by . Having to pay for the advertising and instructions seems strange to me.

I love audio books, but this app is expensive unless you find the place where you can bargain it down. The fee for the App plus the cost of audio books is pretty spendy! Even after getting the deal on the "annual membership" I can't afford the books. I use my local library digital service. I don't get to listen to everything I want, but the library is a great bargain!

I HAVE LOST MUCH OF MY VISION AND MISS READING. THIS HELPS GET CURRENT BOOKS . HAVING IT ON MY I PHONE GIVES ME SOMETHING TO DO WHILE WAITING FOR APPOINTMENTS AND SUCH

This book, was a mistake, I thought I was ordering the Kindle Unlimited subscription membership.

I paid $.99 to get this book on . Not much but save your money. You can get it for free once you join Kindle unlimited but it's even not worth the free price!

Nice help for that someone just starting out and not knowing what we're doing I think this is slot of hoops to have to jump thru I were paying our money we should be able to read anything and not have to go thru all this. It's all pointless to me...

Are there any platforms out there with Audible-like variety, and a flat rate per month? I just want a service I can sign up for where I have good content and one payment that covers everything. I couldn't believe it when I first researched Audible and found that the monthly fee isn't a coverall. At the rate I listen to audiobooks, I would be paying like $50 a month.

This whole thing is way too complicated. All I wish to do is purchase a new book and an audio version so that I can either read or listen. The memberships and credits - but wait - if you are already an Audible user the offer for Kindle Unlimited does not apply. So, why are there so many options? Why does one need to purchase the book as well as pay for a membership?
