from inside DJ:Two hundred years ago there was only one insurance firm in America, the Philadelphia Contributionship for the Insurance of Houses from Loss by Fire. This company, established by Benjamin Franklin and a group of his public-spirited friends long before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, is still in operation, but today there are some 4, 480 other insurance organizations with combined assets of more than seventy billion dollars. [book published in 1952!]I wonder what dear old Ben would think now about the MANDATORY insurance regimens mandated by our government ... nowadays. He might agree with it ?
