Customer Reviews

This is,one of my most favorite series ever!!! I love MC books and I loved all of these books!!!

Bishop is mine!!!! I love the interaction between the guys and the action in the books and the way they treat their ladies!!!! Such a great set to have!!!!

Wow.. Such great stories in this box set. I think my favorite couple is Sheppard & Anna's stories. Not sure why but they make a awesome couple. Bishop & Tessa was a great story. That book just sucks you right in & your hooked. I really hope this is not the end.. So many brothers who need books about them. Keep up the awesome work... I recommend this stories and the Author. Be sure to read them all in order or you will be lost.. PS I love the stuff Courtney comes up with & during to know what she put in the Fallen girls bed...

Awesome series wish there would be more! Stories were great, characters were great, overall a very good read! Maybe these characters will show up in a different series and we will still get to be intrigued by the devil chasers family!

I love this story! It's one of my faves and I have read it several times. That said in the boxed set (yes I checked for updates on kindle), there are a lot of errors. One book the character is 23 and the next book 24. Names are off from one book to another and wrong words are used. I'm not sure if the stand alone kindle copies are like this but the boxed set is. Again I love the story and the path these characters take.

This author is a stronger writer when the story is written as a first person narrative rather than third. Tessa and Bishop's story didn't flow as well as the others, because the author seems to struggle when not writing from the characters POV. Still decent, just not as good as the other stories. The other issue that I had is that there were some background storylines touched upon, but never explored, so unless they are getting their own stories, it left a lot of unanswered questions. All in all, a good way to spend the day.

I like how each story plot stands alone. Each character has their own fire. There is enough adult interactions to spice up the plots. The stories are well thought through and there is suspense to keep you reading. If you like MC stories this is a good set.

Wow! Loved! First MC series I've read, and must say that I'm hooked! L Wilder did an amazing descriptive job that kept me enthralled and engaged in each story!

Love this series. Once you start to read you can't put tge stories down.

Bishop.....Renegade.....Goliath.....Bobby and Sheppard along with their loves will never leave a dull moment in this read. A five star read with a thumbs up suggestion to read
