Customer Reviews

This book is excellent! It makes putting on a short church Christmas play easy. All the costumes, props, and lines are right there and easy to use. It is set up for a range of ages and just right for a small group, but could be adapted for larger.

We have a small Sunday School of about 17 kids grades Pre-K-6. Our Christmas program last year came from this book and we got a lot of compliments on it. We sent lines home with parents and had about 5 practices. We actually combined two of the plays. One of them had a lot of lines spoken (read) off stage into the sound system. That meant we really only needed one good reader and one actor. The younger kids--grades 4 and below were able to handle the smaller parts. All together with hymns, it lasted about 25-30 minutes. Most importantly, the kids thought it was a fun way to tell the Christmas story. They were excited to perform it and I thought it turned out great. We might do another play from this book this year, but even if we don't, it was well worth the money.

Great Book Great Price. Should be retitled "Cute, short plays that take a FEW practices". I've been doing kid's Christmas plays for 20 years. These are NOT do-able in one practice. Simple and well written but plan on 4 or 5 short practices to get it right.

We used one of these plays for our Christmas program this year. While I don't think you can get the whole thing done in just one rehearsal, it was great to have a fairly simple program that I felt we could do if practiced for a couple of weeks.

Great book for short Christmas programs

these are NOT one rehearsal plays

Great Product!

We only had one practice with EVERYONE there...but I would still plan out 6 weeks before performance to learn songs, run lines and get a feel for the show
