Bazaar Style: Decorating With Market And Vintage Finds

Synopsis

Discover an exciting world of creative decorating that will make you feel comfortably at home in every room. Stylist Selina Lake and interiors writer Joanna Simmons show you real homes furnished with intriguing pieces from different eras and cultures, which mix and match colors, patterns, and designs. The look is so achievable because anything goes! Simply take the things you love and create a home that is truly yours. You'll discover an inspiring mix of vintage and retro influences, flea-market finds, and pieces inspired by a French brocante or Moroccan bazaar, which you can use to customize basic high-street buys. The book begins by showing you how to combine the Elements of the style to put the look together: Furniture & Storage, Textiles, Color & Pattern, Lighting, Wall Art & Collectibles, and Display are all considered. In the second half of the book, Rooms, find out how the style works brilliantly in Cooking & Eating Spaces, Living Spaces, Bathing Spaces, Sleeping Spaces, and Outdoor Living.

Customer Reviews

Selina Lake is a freelance interiors stylist. Her work regularly appears in home and lifestyle magazines including Marie Claire and Real Homes. Selina's other books, Homespun Style and Romantic Style are both published by Ryland Peters & Small.

There are some nice pictures in this book, but little else of substance. And a lot of the rooms are re-shot so you see the same things 3 or 4 times on different pages. If you are looking for inspiration, you might find some help here. But for practical purposes, and for ideas for a home people actually live in, this isn't the book. Makes a nice coffee table book for people to pick up and glance through for a few minutes, but I read the whole book in less than a 1/2 hour.

So-so. Nice photos, a few ideas, but nothing you couldn't improve upon by spending some time on Pinterest.

I never write reviews, but this book is just fantastic! I love unique and different things with lots of color, so this book is very helpful. I can use the things I have for a vibrant fun filled home. If you are an avid flea market, rummage sale, & import store shopper, you are going to really enjoy this!

A bright, fun book with that European edge that's so appealing; however, I'm not as much of a fan of this particular kind of kitsch as I thought I was.

I'm not a vintage/fleamarket style person when it comes to interiors, but it's refreshing to see that personal and unique homes can be created without a lot of money. A lot of ideas can be picked up here. You don't have to have a home that's entirely Bazaar/vintage style, but quite a lot of us do have a piece or two that can come to use in our home and make it our own. A lot of pictures - a book that gives you value for money.

Although this book was published in 2008, the style is in no way dated, which is an attribute to the vibrant eclectic style Selina Lake's wonderful book portrays. If you like imaginative, creative interiors that reflect the occupant's taste, as opposed to pocketbook, this book should resonate with you. As a world traveler and collector who wants my interiors to reflect my personal style and life experiences, I can truly relate to Bazaar Style. The images in the book are inspirational and mouthwatering. Highly recommended for those who like this style.
