Shannon is a mom and Eric's wife. She served as the K-12 district teacher librarian at Van Meter Community School District in Iowa for 8 years. Shannon is now an international speaker and consultant who speaks about education, librarianship, technology, Makerspaces, social media, and making a difference in education and the lives of others, especially children. She is also a book and blog author, including the award-winning The Library Voice blog, and enjoys writing for various blogs, journals and other forums. In 2014, she was named a Library Journal Mover and Shaker and in 2016, she was awarded the Make It Happen Award by ISTE. Kathryn Durst grew up in Peterborough, Canada, and has been drawing ever since she could hold a pencil. She has a passion for children's illustration. She works in a variety of styles, using both traditional and digital mediums. Her art has been described as charming, whimsical, expressive, and full of life.

Kathryn attended Sheridan College for the Bachelor of Applied Arts - 2D Animation Program. In her third year, she completed her internship at Pixar Animation Studios for storyboarding. She also works as an animator, filmmaker, and puppeteer. She loves working on children's entertainment, publications, and media, especially kids' books and television series. Kathryn also loves dancing, sewing, sculpting, playing accordion, cooking, and hanging out with her mini dachshund, Chili Dog. She is currently based out of Toronto.
